AWARDED TO

Rima Sen

is a Breakthrough Leader 2025 — one of 50 exceptional mid-to-senior level creatives nominated by their industry peers, selected from over 400 nominations across the UK screen industries, and backed by the BBC, ITV, Fremantle, Amazon Prime Video, Paramount and Channel 4. Delivered by The TV Collective, it marks a defined moment of professional progression: the point at which they have demonstrated increased leadership capacity, clarity in their career direction, and readiness to step into greater influence. Selected not because they were trying to break in — but because they were ready to lead.
